

How Companies succeed working with MeasuredUp

Forward thinking companies and advertising agencies harness the power of MeasuredUp to connect with targeted consumers and build their customer service reputation.

Whether brands want to reach targeted customers while searching by category or company name, researching purchase decisions or writing reviews about competitors our numerous advertising opportunities help your company reach the right person at the right time with the right message. MeasuredUp helps you deliver your targeted advertising message while also learning about your consumers and competitors and developing, maintaining or improving a great customer service reputation and brand.

MeasuredUp is a valuable partner for leading companies that understand the importance of Customer Service to the brand and revenue and that want to demonstrate a commitment to customers.

Customized Company Profile Pages on MeasuredUp

Harness the power of MeasuredUp and use a customized company profile page to connect directly with consumers. Share news, updates, announcements, specials or brand messages. Answer complaints, reward loyalty, solve disputes, gain insight, develop relationships and build your customer service reputation. Your company page also provides a basic company bio and location information and highlights consumer reviews and comments submitted directly to MeasuredUp by our members.

By maintaining this valuable targeted space on the leading consumer reviews website your company leverages the power of MeasuredUp toward positive consumer interaction and business growth.

For even more visibility, opt for a Featured Company text link on the front page of MeasuredUp. Featured Company links open to reveal your customized Company Profile page. The Featured Company link gives your brand front page placement on the premier consumer reviews website!
